

Senate Resolution 1087

By: Senators Tate of the 38th, Brown of the 26th, Davenport of the 44th, Hooks of the 14th, Fort of the 39th and others

A RESOLUTION

1 Expressing regret at the passing of Lithangia Shannell Robinson; and for other purposes.

2 WHEREAS, on February 27, 2008, the State of Georgia lost one of its finest and most 3 distinguished citizen advocates, Lithangia Shannell Robinson; and

4 WHEREAS, she served her community tirelessly as a volunteer and an educator for 31 years;
5 and

6 WHEREAS, she grew up in a time when many women did not attend college, yet she 7 graduated from Clark College in Atlanta and received a master's degree from Atlanta 8 University; and

9 WHEREAS, she continued her affiliation with Clark College and Atlanta University, serving 10 on the steering committee to consolidate the two, as well as continuing to serve on the 11 Clark-Atlanta University Guild; and 12 WHEREAS, she was a woman of leadership in education, serving as president-elect of the 13 Association of Classroom Teachers from 1967 through 1969 and as president from 1969 14 through 1971, as well as serving on numerous committees, later becoming president of the 15 Georgia Association of Educators and continuing to lead as president of the Georgia 16 Association of Retired Educators from 1991 through 1994 and thereafter as a board member; 17 and

18 WHEREAS, her leadership skills included serving as a United States delegate for the 19 National Education Association to the World Confederation of the Teaching Profession 20 meeting held in Nigeria, Africa, in 1977; and

21 WHEREAS, she was a leader in her local community, as demonstrated by her appointment
22 by then Mayor Maynard Jackson to the Community Relations Commission from 1992
23 through 1994, her participation in the Brown Field Airport Steering Committee, her service

1 to the Grady Health System on its Senior Advisory Board, as well as her consistent advocacy
2 with Fulton County for programs and services for older adults, including as a member of the 3 Fulton County Council on Aging, participating in the planning and implementation of the 4 building of the Harriett G. Darnell Senior Multipurpose Facility for which she served on the 5 board as a member and as vice chair; and

6 WHEREAS, she provided guidance to state government through her advocacy efforts, 7 serving on the Georgia Council on Aging since 1994, advocating with members of the 8 General Assembly, and advising the Georgia Department of Human Resources and other 9 state agencies about the concerns of older Georgians because she felt that "people need to see 10 us as more than just old, crabby retirees. We need to be heard on the important issues"; and

11 WHEREAS, she was a dedicated servant of her church, St. Paul of the Cross Catholic 12 Church, teaching religious education classes, serving as secretary, parliamentarian, and 13 representing her parish at numerous religious conventions; and

14 WHEREAS, she was a steadfast member of the Democratic Party of Georgia, serving on its 15 Executive Committee for a number of years, and was recognized by then Secretary of State
16 Max Cleland for Outstanding Accomplishment in Voter Registration of Georgia Residents; 17 and

18 WHEREAS, she was recognized for her work by many organizations, including the Human 19 Relations Award from the Southeast Regional Association of Classroom Teachers (1980),
20 Volunteer of the Year Award from then Governor Joe Frank Harris (1984), Meritorious
21 Service Award from the American Association of Retired Persons (1991), the Distinguished 22 Alumni Award from the National Association for Equal Opportunity in Higher Education
23 (1994), Outstanding Citizen of Georgia Award from then Secretary of State Lewis Massey 24 (1996), Trailblazer Award from St. Paul of the Cross Catholic Church (1999), Senior of the 25 Year 2001 from the Fulton County Human Services Department Office of Aging, National 26 Education Association Retired Distinguished Service Award (2001), Georgia Gerontology
27 Society Certificate of Merit (2001) and the John Tyler Mauldin Award (2005), Georgia's 28 Legacy - Older Women Award from the Georgia Commission on Women (2004), Father
29 H.C. Boudin Award from the Older Atlanta Task Force (2004), and Woman of Distinction 30 by African-American Heritage Preservation Cultural Complex; and 31 WHEREAS, she exemplified the saying she often quoted, "service is the rent we pay for our 32 time on earth"; and

1 WHEREAS, this pioneering African American woman of distinction who led by service to 2 others has made the City of Atlanta, the County of Fulton, and the State of Georgia a better 3 place for us all; and

4 WHEREAS, her friends and family will deeply feel her absence in their daily lives.

5 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body
6 express their deepest and most sincere regret at the passing of Lithangia Shannell Robinson.

7 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized
8 and directed to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to the family of Lithangia 9 Shannell Robinson.
